October 2020

Holiday gatherings for my family often included much laughter as stories were told during dessert.

With three children at home, our table is often loud and we never know what will be the topic of conversation.

I have always appreciated church meals that offer an opportunity to talk with others and listen to their stories.

One of the challenges of these past six months has been the loss of fellowship with friends and family as we were unable to eat with one another.

And there are always those among us who struggle to eat at an empty table after loved ones are gone.

Whatever your experiences around your tables, know that there is one table where we are all welcomed—the table of God’s grace.

During this month of October, I invite you to reflect on the many ways God welcomes us, and the many ways God calls us to welcome others.

In a world of dissension and division, we will not always agree with one another. Yet how can we honor God’s call to see one another, to listen to one another’s stories, and to live together as the body of Christ in this world? How can we follow Jesus’ example of table fellowship with all of God’s beloved children?

Throughout this month of October, questions for reflection will be sent with the bulletins each week.

To strengthen your faith journey, I invite you share these reflections with one another:

- *Around your family tables
- *With close friends over a meal
- *On your back porch with a neighbor or two
- *On a zoom call with others within our congregation (see page 7)

May we be open to experiencing and sharing God’s grace from God’s table to our tables.

Pastor Amy

Anticipating the Holidays with COVID-19, Part 1

A Word from Stephen Ministry

It's not only a death that causes grief. We grieve the loss of a marriage, independence, or a job. We grieve the empty nest when our youngest child launches.

As the holiday season approaches, the pandemic may well change our plans and traditions in ways that cause us grief. We already know Christmas in Springboro is cancelled. Will we be able to take that annual trip to see grandparents for Thanksgiving? Will our grandparents even want us to come? What about sitting on Santa's lap? Office parties? Fall festivals? Open houses? Huge family gatherings? The Nutcracker ballet? Black Friday shopping? Christmas Eve worship? Caroling? That annual black-tie New Year's Eve party? We will miss out on a lot during the 2020 holiday season, but we might manage our grief by accepting it, planning for it, and working with it.

Step 1

Accept that this holiday season may not be like other years. Even if you are comfortable being out and about, the loved ones you normally celebrate with might not be. It's important to respect everyone's boundaries around COVID-19. Some families have high-risk individuals they are protecting by distance and quarantine.

Step 2

Talk about holiday plans with your immediate family. Maybe make a list of all the traditions and activities that are important to each member of the family. Which traditions will work with COVID restrictions, and which traditions won't?

Step 3

Establish new activities to replace the ones that won't work this year. For instance, if your extended family usually gathers at grandma's house in another state for Christmas Eve dinner, perhaps you might choose to have a Zoom gathering Christmas Day instead. You can still see each other's faces, have someone read Luke 2 aloud, or have a contest to see who got the best present or who can come up with the corniest joke. And maybe everyone can donate the money they would have spent on travel to a good cause. By brainstorming creative alternatives, you might even find new traditions for the future.

The 2020 holidays won't be the same as previous years, but we can still find reasons to celebrate our gratitude for the harvest and for the Love born into our world that first Christmas so long ago.

In the next newsletter, you'll find some suggestions for alternate activities for the holidays. Stay tuned!

Christianity's Family Tree: What Other Christians Believe and Why

Adam Hamilton presents a generous, inspiring vision of eight Christian denominations and faith traditions. Comparing the Christian family to our own extended families, he contends that each denomination has a unique, valuable perspective to offer on the Christian faith.

The traditions included in this eight-week study are Orthodoxy, Catholicism, Lutheranism, Presbyterianism, Anglicanism, Baptists, Pentecostalism, and Methodism. For each group, Hamilton gives a brief history, outlines major beliefs, and describes some things we can learn from that tradition to strengthen our own Christian faith.

We begin on Friday, October 2nd with a Zoom meeting, 11:00am-12:30pm. Everyone is included... and welcome! Contact Pastor Doug for log in info

Bright Beginnings

Bright Beginnings Christian Preschool

As we move further into the school year, students are getting into the school routine. The Bible verse for October is "I trust in God and am not afraid" (Psalm 56:4) and the Fruit of the Spirit is kindness.

We have many fun events planned this month. We will hold our annual Pumpkin Patch the week of October 19th. During this event, the children get to walk through a straw maze, play festival games and pick out their very own pumpkin. At the end of the month we have class Halloween parties and we will hold outdoor Halloween Costume Parades (weather permitting) on October 27, 29 and 30. All in all, it will be an amazing month of fun and learning!

A.C.E.—Active Christian Exploration

As part of our A.C.E. program, our students "journey" around the world exploring and learning about different areas of the great world God created for us. In addition, the students spend time playing games, making crafts and doing homework. If you are interested in more information on our wonderful Bright Beginnings or A.C.E. programs, please contact Kim at 937-748-2612 or kim-fumc@gmail.com.

Parent Connection

We will be starting our first Table Talk with the study "It's not supposed to be this way" on Tuesday, September 29th at North Park (if weather cooperates) If it rains, we will be meeting via zoom.

We will be doing Bright & Fit on Mondays at 9 a.m. at North Park as long as the weather holds out. We hope you will join us!

Outreach

SCAC and The Pantry Needs

As you know, COVID-19 has created a burden on our local food pantries and both SCAC and The Pantry need food donations.

To make it easier for you to drop off donations, we will be moving the shopping cart outside every Thursday, starting 9/17 through 10/29.

We'll put it out around 9am and bring it in around 530pm. Over the following day or so, one of the Mission team will pick up the donations and take them to one of the pantries.

Both pantries have a list of needed items on their website, but always needed are:

- canned fruit and vegetables
- canned pasta (think Chef Boyardee)
- fruit and applesauce cups
- instant breakfast items (instant oatmeal, Pop Tarts, cereal bars, etc)

- side dishes (boxed potatoes, pasta sides, rice and rice sides, ramen noodles)
- canned pasta sauce and diced tomatoes
- canned beans
- peanut butter
- boxed pasta
- Mac & Cheese
- snack items
- sweet treats (pre-packaged)

There is also always a need for feminine hygiene products, other hygiene products, cleaning supplies, and paper products.

If you would like to donate financially to either pantry, please send a check to the church, clearly marked for which pantry, and we will ensure it gets to the right place.

Thanks for all you do to support local families in need during this time!!

Thank you!

Dear Church Family,

Words cannot adequately express our heart felt thanks for the many cards, flowers and good wishes as we celebrated the 100th birthday of our mother, Ruth Dunn. She is the 5th generation, from the initial E.U.B. "branch, of our church and has worn many "hats" of service through her life-long membership. She is listening to services with us each week (on Facebook) and we are thankful to all who have made that possible. May the grace and peace of God be with you all!

Gratefully,

The Family of Ruth Dunn
